SUMMARY

Highly motivated Bachelor of IT graduate (degree completed with distinction, graduation pending) with a strong academic record. I am highly passionate about databases and data management, with a solid foundation in SQL, relational database design, normalization, ERD modeling, queries, joins, indexing, and data integrity. Experienced in working with MySQL and SQLite, integrating databases into full-stack web applications and mobile applications. Proficient in programming languages such as C#, Java, and Python. Familiar with MongoDB and core database optimization principles. A fast learner with strong analytical, problem-solving, adaptability, and teamwork skills, eager to contribute to a graduate, internship, or junior software development programme.
